

A PORTFOLIO OF FIVE GOLF PROPERTIES ACROSS INDIA

Game of Life Sports

Incorporated in 2023, Game of Life Sports is building and operating multiple sports IPs across professional and amateur golf, while creating pathways for the development of the wider golf ecosystem.

72 The League — India's exclusive professional, franchise-led golf league, in partnership with PGTI under a long-term agreement.

Qutab Golf League (QGL) — Delhi NCR's premier amateur golf league, now entering its third season with participation from golfers across 17+ golf courses.

State Golf Associations — 10-year partnerships with State Golf Associations to develop golf and create new pathways for junior and grassroots programmes.

GCS&MAI Partnership — Working with the Golf Course Superintendents & Managers Association of India to support skill development in golf course management and infrastructure maintenance.

We are a sport-tainment platform around the sports league format with an objective of promoting talent, motivating, engaging the new-generation of fans using technology, format innovations & creating unprecedented value for all stakeholders & ecosystem.

Today, that portfolio is anchored by five proprietary properties, each with its own audience, format and commercial identity.
